

CITY OF COLORADO SPRINGS CONTRACTORS AND TAX EXEMPT ENTITIES

A contractor may not avoid the payment of the Colorado Springs sales or use tax on materials purchased by using the name of a tax-exempt entity for which work is performed. A certificate of exemption issued by the Department of Revenue, or any other taxing authority, does not authorize exemption from the City of Colorado Springs sales or use tax on construction materials.

Only "direct sales to" or "direct purchases by" an exempt entity when paying from their funds is a transaction tax exempt. If you are not the exempt organization then you, as the purchaser, are responsible for payment of tax. If the contractor does not pay City sales tax to the seller, the contractor may owe use tax to the City in which the construction site is located.
